This chart shows which President put which Justices on the Court, how many ACLU cases each “President’s Justice(s)” voted on, and the percentages of cases each President’s Justice(s) voted on the side the ACLU was on.

For example, the chart shows that Lyndon B. Johnson put two Justices on the Court, and those two justices voted on 580 ACLU cases, voting on the side the ACLU was on 472 times. Therefore, Johnson's Justices voted on the side of the ACLU 81.38%, the highest percentage of Presidential Justice votes on the side of the ACLU's side.

The last president, Donald Trump, put two Justices on the Court. They voted 51 times on ACLU cases, voting with the side of the ACLU 11 times, or 21.57% of the time, the lowest percentage of votes on the ACLU’s side.
